

PRESENTS:
Offensive and Defensive Live Fire Attack

- Course Description: This class provides firefighters with the ability to see smoke and fire conditions created by a room and contents fire. The students will participate in fire attack in both offensive and defensive modes.
- Dates/Times: January 19th. Class begins with a briefing at 1000. We will take a break for lunch following the briefing. All crews will leave Napoleon Fire and Rescue for the live burn at 1300. Students must attend the briefing to be present at the live burn training.
- Location: Briefing held at Napoleon Fire and Rescue in the training room. 265 W Riverview Ave, Napoleon, Ohio 43545.
- Cost: No cost to you.
- Registration: Registration closes on January 13th. Course has limited availability. Each member fills out attached form and return to Napoleon Fire and Rescue Fire Training Coordinator.
- Prereq Training: Students must be State of Ohio Certified Fire I or II to enter the live burn. 36 hour firefighters will be allowed to perform transitional attack and defensive operations.