

NAPOLEON POWER & LIGHT CELEBRATES PUBLIC POWER WEEK, OCT. 4-10

Napoleon, Ohio (October 2) – Napoleon Power & Light (NPL) is celebrating Public Power Week Oct. 4-10 along with more than 2,000 other community-owned, not-for-profit electric utilities that collectively provide electricity to 48 million Americans.

“Public Power Week celebrates the reliable, affordable electricity Napoleon Power and Light provides to our community,” said Napoleon City Manager Monica Irelan. “Public Power puts the customers of Napoleon first, and Public Power Week gives us the chance to emphasize the advantages of locally owned power services to our citizens,” said Irelan.

NPL is proud to have served the Napoleon area since 1894. That’s 121 years of continuous service. “Our service is reliable and safe, and we take pride in serving our friends and neighbors,” said Electric Superintendent Dennis Clapp.

Today NPL serves over 6,200 residential, commercial and industrial customers. Fourteen (14) highly trained, full time personnel serves the customers 24 hours a day; 7 days a week; 365 days a year.

The NPL staff would like to sincerely thank all our valued customers for the privilege of serving you. Please call us at 419-599-1891 if you have any questions or concerns for our staff.

To report a power outage or other problem with your electric service, be sure to call our toll free number 1-855-646-1701.